

Calleetburg Items

Almond Institute.

Prof. J. O. Daniels, former county superintendent of schools, now with the B. F. Johnson Book Co., of Louisville, attended the institute yesterday.

Brought Many Prisoners.

Sheriff R. H. Sowards, of Pike county, stopped over night enroute to Camp Taylor with 12 prisoners. 12 shackles and two drivers, most of whom were negroes. This makes 16 drivers and shackles Sheriff Sowards has brought here and they have almost all been negroes, many of them having been drawn to Pike county in the past few years by the mining operations.

Mrs. Morris Asks

For Appropriation.

Mrs. E. P. Harris, county library agent, asked the local court for an appropriation of $50 to be used as prize money for the teacher who averages the best attendance and best results in their moonlight schools. She was honored with much interest and the appropriation was made. The teachers have all agreed to teach 24 nights each month without compensation, and they are all apparently much interested. There is likely to be additional prizes offered in this work, which will be available from other sources.

Left For New York.

Mrs. S. H. Savage went to New York where she will be the guest of Col. and Mrs. D. H. Savage a few weeks before going to her home in Colorado.

Mr. Will Bentley and son, James Hubert and junior, are visiting Mrs. Bentley's mother, Mrs. Mary M. Bentley, in Pikeville and Mrs. Bentley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Green at Myers, Pike county.

Returns Home.

Mrs. Bell York has returned from a pleasant visit to relatives at Fallsburg, Lawrence county.

Pardon For Kitchen.

Jailer Fred Becker received through the mail a pardon, signed by President Woodrow Wilson, sent in behalf of Willie Kitchen, a young boy who was convicted of breaking in a warehouse and who was given a year's sentence in the county jail. He has served eight months of the time. He is from Webbville and is a bright and nice looking young boy probably 16 years old. He asked Jailer Becker to let him stay over last night as he had no where to go. He will be released and will be advised to join the service, which would doubtless make a man of him.

Not Dangerously Wounded.

Sgt. Chas. M. Rumpen, brave young marine officer, who was reported wounded by a cable from his commanding officer to the parents and also reported in the casualty list, has written a card to the home folks that his wound is not of a dangerous nature and that he is getting along nicely in a first class hospital.

R. T. Berry, one of Lawrence county's biggest farmers and president of the Bank of Blaire, has been visiting Chas. R. Holloman of Ashland.

Returned From Cincinnati.

Mrs. Mary Digan, manager of the club house, of Consolidated Coal Co., at Jenkins, was in our city over night returning from Cincinnati where she had an operation of the throat. She is recovering nicely. She returned to her home at Jenkins.

Will Soon Sail.

Harry Harris, youngest son of Eric Harris and wife, who is in the navy and has been located at Great Lakes training station, has with his company been ordered to Philadelphia and thinks he is soon to sail for France.

Purchased Beautiful Home.

It is said Dr. Charles Bond has purchased the beautiful home here of Mrs. Ed S. Hughes so that he will be given possession of same about August 15th and will locate in this city. Dr. Bond is at present living in Ashland. Dr. G. K. Bond, brother of Dr. Charles Bond was a business visitor here yesterday.

Promoted to Captaincy.

Dr. W. H. Hatchet, formerly of this city, who enlisted in the ranks of D. S. in the U. S. Army and has been for a long while at Camp Sherman, writes that he has been promoted to the rank of Captain.

INEZ.

A much needed rain fell on Monday night refreshing the dusty earth.

The little baby of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Purvis died last week of unknown complaint.
